HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION STATUS

Provide one of the following documents to verify your (the student's) High School Completion Status. This should be your status when you begin your training during the 2016-17 school year.

- A copy of your high school diploma NOTE: In the state of Utah a Certificate of Completion is not considered a valid high school diploma or recognized equivalent
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded
- A copy of your General Education Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree
- If you are homeschooled and State law requires a homeschool student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential NOTE: In the state of Utah law requires homeschooled students to obtain either a high school diploma or GED
- If you are homeschooled and State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript of the equivalent, signed by the students parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting
- If you are a student who completed secondary education in a foreign country, submit a copy of the "secondary school leaving certificate" or other similar document
