YES	NO	57	At any time on or after July 1, 2015, did the director of an emergency shelter or transitional housing program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless?
YES	NO	58	At any time on or after July 1, 2015, did the director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless?

If you answer NO to all of these questions, you are considered a dependent student and you must provide parent information on your FAFSA. Please complete the parent information section of the FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Approximately two weeks after your parent information and signature is submitted the Financial Aid Office at BATC will receive and evaluate your valid student report. You will be contacted about the results and your eligibility for the Pell Grant will be determined.

If you answer YES to any of these questions you must provide official third party documentation supporting your status to the Financial Aid Office at BATC for further consideration of your eligibility. See NOTES on following page.

Sign and date the STATEMENT on the bottom of this completed form. If you answered yes to any question attach your official third party documentation supporting your status, and return all to the BATC Financial Aid Office at 1301 North 600 West, Logan, for further consideration. Further information, including but not limited to a written statement from you regarding your situation, may be required.

STATEMENT

The information on this sheet is true and correct. If I have attached official third party documentation supporting my status I confirm it too is true and correct.

NOTES

Notes for question 49 Answer “Yes” if you are currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces or are a National Guard or Reserves enlistee who is on active duty for other than state or training purposes. Answer “No” if you are a National Guard or Reserves enlistee who is on active duty for state or training purposes.

Notes for question 50 Answer “Yes” (you are a veteran) if you (1) have engaged in active duty (including basic training) in the U.S. Armed Forces (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines or Coast Guard) or are a National Guard or Reserve enlistee who was called to active duty for other than state or training purposes, or were a cadet or midshipman at one of the service academies, and (2) were released under a condition other than dishonorable. Also answer “Yes” if you are not a veteran now but will be one by June 30, 2017. Answer “No” (you are not a veteran) if you (1) have never engaged in active duty (including basic training) in the U.S. Armed Forces, (2) are currently an ROTC student or a cadet or midshipman at a service academy, (3) are a National Guard or Reserves enlistee activated only for state or training purposes, or (4) were engaged in active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces but released under dishonorable conditions. Also answer “No” if you are currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces and will continue to serve through June 30, 2017.

Notes for question 53 Answer “Yes” if at any time since you turned age 13: You had no living parent, even if you are now adopted; or, You were in foster care, even if you are no longer in foster care today; or, You were a dependent or ward of the court, even if you are no longer a dependent or ward of the court today. For federal student aid purposes, someone who is incarcerated is not considered a ward of the court. Note: The financial aid administrator at your school may require you to provide proof that you were in foster care or a dependent or ward of the court.

Notes for questions 54 and 55 The definition of legal guardianship does not include your parents, even if they were appointed by a court to be your guardians. You are also not considered a legal guardian of yourself. Answer “Yes” if you can provide a copy of a court’s decision that as of today you are an emancipated minor or are in legal guardianship. Also answer “Yes” if you can provide a copy of a court’s decision that you were an emancipated minor or were in legal guardianship immediately before you reached the age of being an adult in your state. The court must be located in your state of legal residence at the time the court’s decision was issued. Answer “No” if you are still a minor and the court decision is no longer in effect or the court decision was not in effect at the time you become an adult. Also answer “No” if custody was awarded by the courts and the court papers say “custody” (not guardianship). Note: The financial aid administrator at your college may require you to provide proof that you were an emancipated minor or in legal guardianship.

Notes for questions 56–58 Answer “Yes” if you received a determination at any time on or after July 1, 2015, that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or at risk of being homeless. · “Homeless” means lacking fixed, regular and adequate housing. You may be homeless if you are living in shelters, parks, motels or cars, or are temporarily living with other people because you had nowhere else to go. Also, if you are living in any of these situations and fleeing an abusive parent you may be considered homeless even if your parent would provide support and a place to live. · “Unaccompanied” means you are not living in the physical custody of your parent or guardian. · “Youth” means you are 21 years of age or younger or you are still enrolled in high school as of the day you sign this application.

Answer “No” if you are not homeless, at risk of being homeless, or if you do not have a determination. You should contact your financial aid office for assistance if you do not have a determination but believe you are an unaccompanied youth who is homeless or are an unaccompanied youth providing for your own living expenses who is at risk of being homeless. Note: The financial aid administrator at your college may require you to provide a copy of the determination if you answered “Yes” to one of these questions.
